

Realism

1800

Why do we tirelessly render the world, when we have the physical environment available for us?

Reaction to Neoclassicism

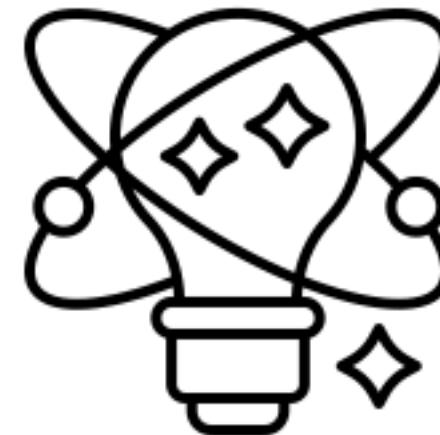

Theatrical and dramatic nature

World as we find it rather than what we want it to be.

A way of trying to be modern.

Showing the psychology of people depicted
not just their anatomy.

SUBSCRIBE

Showing the psychology of people depicted
not just their anatomy.

In literary plot:

Reversal of Fortune
The Plight of the Poor
Evil people do evil things
Corrupt people do corrupt things

Naturalism

- concerend
- Inspired by life-like accuracy of classical sculpture.
- Depiction of naturalistic objects in naturalistic setting.
- Heavily influenced the Renaissance

Realism

- Detailed, accurate and unembellished depiction
- Real in the sense of
 - Social realities
 - Experience

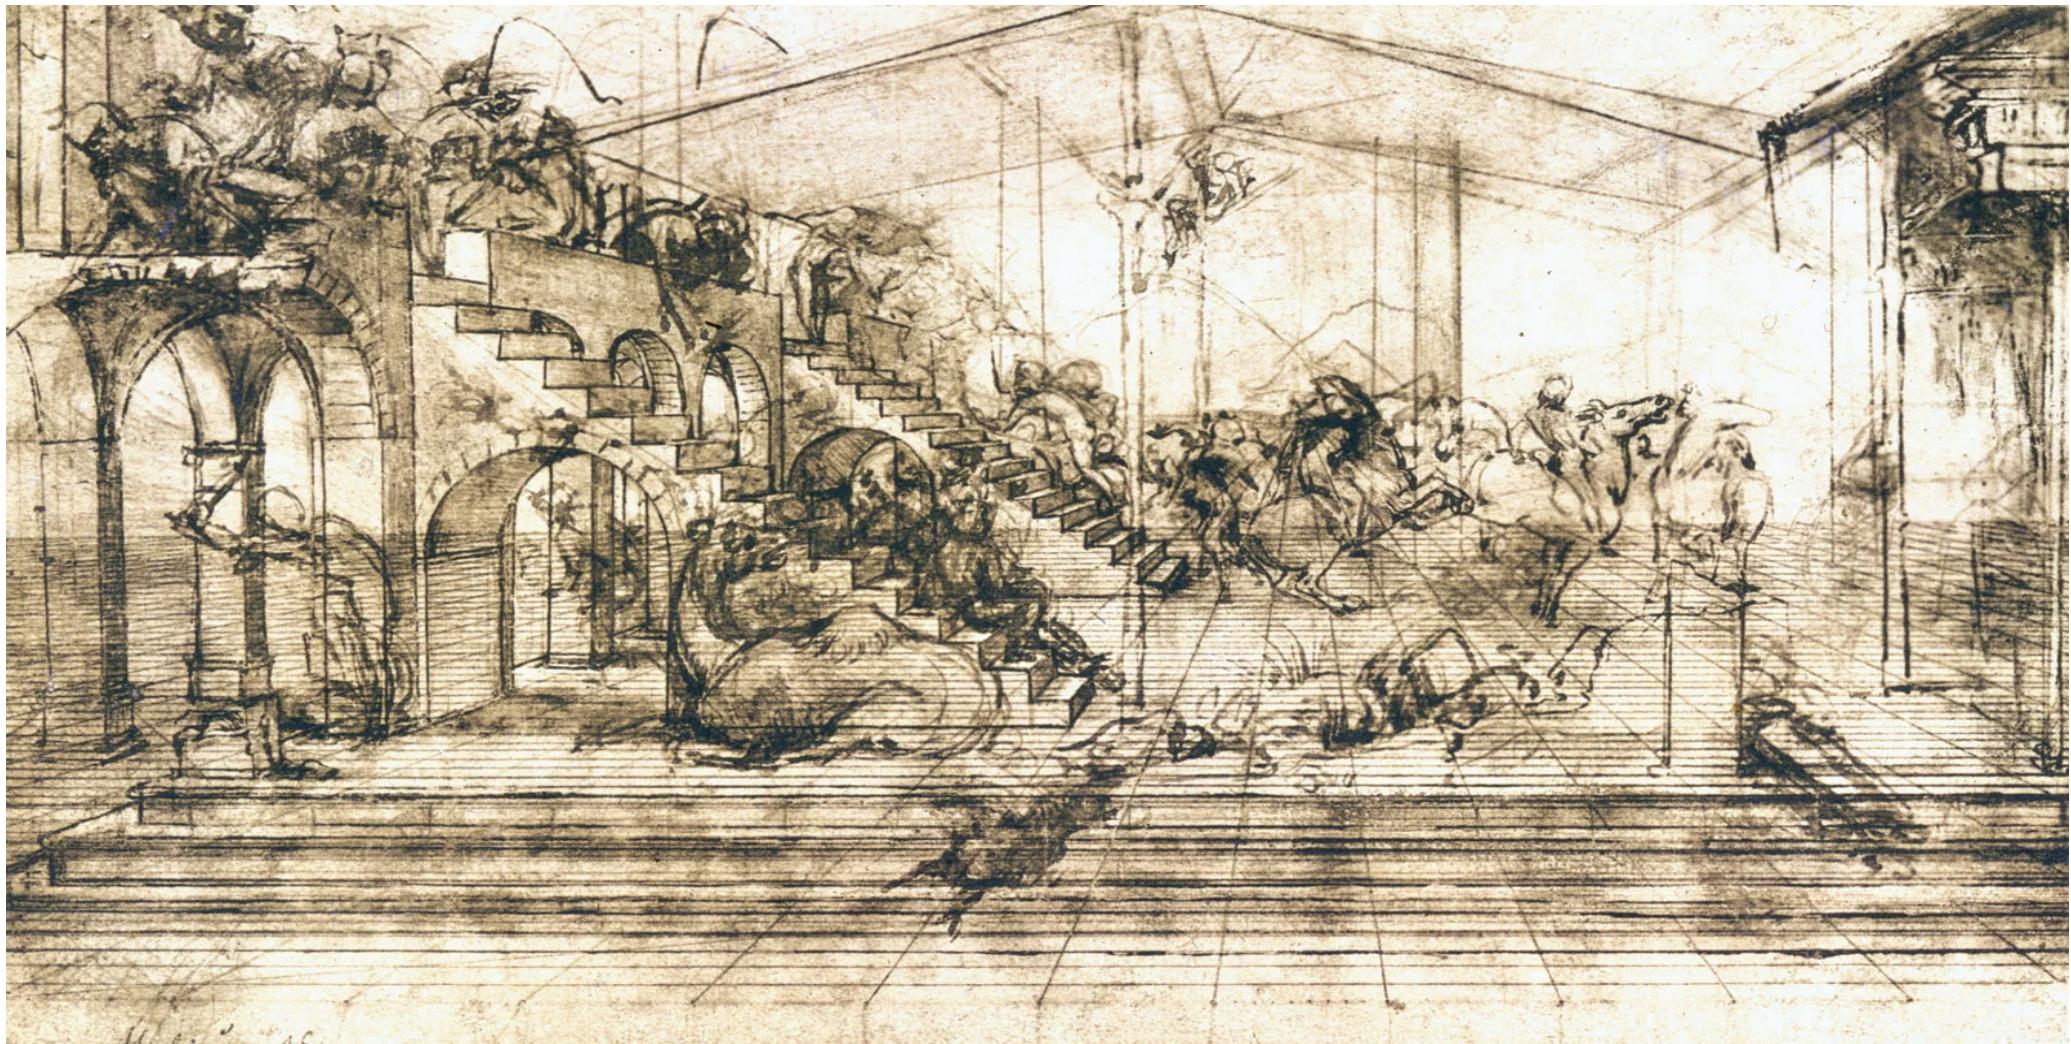

Do you categories Instagram as a digital naturalism-realism?

Linear Perspective

Psychological portraits of the human condition.

L. David

REALISM can record actions, events and form.